

Wendy Williams is a 1989 graduate of Oberlin College Conservatory with a B.Mus. in Music Therapy and Vocal Performance. She has been a licensed Kindermusik educator for 20 years, and is the director of Kindermusik with Sound Foundations in Batavia and Clarence. She has been an invited guest lecturer nationally on developmental best practice in teaching young children, and has been featured on both television and radio. In addition, she is a private vocal instructor. Williams is a member of the Actors Equity Association apprenticeship program, and has performed for over 30 years throughout Western NY and Ohio. She has several years' experience teaching ballet, tap, jazz, and Highland dance. Williams was the designer of the inaugural theater and arts programs for Girl Scouts of Western NY summer resident camps. She is actively involved on the board of Batavia Players, in performances on stage at Harvester, as are her husband, Sean, and several of her six children

Celeste is a Freshman at Genesee Community College intending to major in Theatre. Celeste has been involved with theatre since she was 10 years old. This past summer she had her debut as a director at the Harvester 56 Theater by directing "A Kid's Life!". Celeste has been a member of the Board of Directors at Harvester 56 for three years. In high school Celeste was highly involved with her music program and was in her school's elite choir and sang in NYSSMA All-County and Area-All State choirs. Her last two years in high school she sang with the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra with their Holiday Pops high school choir.

Tuesday: Arts and Crafts $60

Grades 3rd -5th

Instructor: Mrs. Bridget DelPlato (SJS classroom aide)

Using art materials to create projects. The themes include winter and spring holidays. Students will make a sculpture using only recycled materials.

Wednesday: Fit Kids $80

Grades 1st - 4th

Instructor: Mrs. Jill Kratz

(SJS Wraparound teacher & parent)

Keeping kids active and feeling great is the goal of this program. Your child will build stamina, strength, and power through fun fitness games and workouts. The high energy classes will use bodyweight movements to get kids' hearts pumping while the provided snacks and discussions will focus on proper nutrition and healthy food choices. Fit Kids helps to promote an active, healthy lifestyle for your child!

Wednesday: Crafty Kitchen $110

Grades K -5th

Instructor: Amy Laska (parent)

Students will be decorating cupcakes, treats and snacks to enjoy. Activities will revolve around seasonal holidays, characters, and other fun themes. Students should bring a container to transport goodies home and have an apron or oversized shirt to cover their clothing. Any other supplies will be provided.

No classes February 21st due to school holiday

Thursday: Yoga $80

Grades K-5th

Instructor: Mrs. Nancy Jo Rademacker (SJS parent)

Students in K-5 will meet in the gym to learn the ancient art and science of yoga. This is a great opportunity to achieve better balance, greater flexibility, increase cognitive functioning, learn to self-soothe and achieve a more positive outlook. This class will help with your child's self-esteem and communication skills. But most of all, it's fun! Wear comfortable clothes, bring a water bottle and a mat. Healthy snacks are included.

Thursday: Theater $100

Grades K-8th

Instructors: Ms. Wendy Williams (see back for resume) & Ms. Celeste Brownell (see back for resume)

Students will have the opportunity to sample many aspects of drama and theater. Activities include creative and improv games, voice for acting and singing, stage dance and movement, creating and staging scenes, and more! Classes will culminate in a fun on-stage group performing opportunity. Led by Wendy Williams, education director at Harvester 56 Theater, and Celeste Brownell, youth summer theater camp director.
